Dean Garrett announced: wanted to take pictures of all ministers present for the Heritage Center. Please meet with Dean to get pictures taken

John Kinsel shared that as a result of the presentation Listening with Grace last fall, there is an ongoing conversation for families of individuals who identify with the LGBT community and their families. Living Sanctuary will meet at Pleasant Hill Monday, Oct. 30 at 7pm.

Bob Gross will be meeting with us tomorrow for the next step in the reconciliation process which focuses on financial processes. Listening sessions will be held at 7:00 pm at the following locations and dates: Beaver Creek Church of the Brethren on October 16,; New Carlisle October 17; Brethren Retirement Center on October 18.

Passport Program: Freddie and Brenda Worthington from Prince of Peace church presented the Passport Program as a way to support visiting other congregational worships. Please review the information in the packet and make suggestions of any additional information or corrections.

Refugee Resettlement Task Team: Linda Brandon discussed that Miami Valley Catholic Social Services is the lead agency in resettling refugees in the area. Southern Ohio Church of the Brethren will be collaborating with them in this work. The Catholic Social Services has a warehouse for supplies/items used to help the families as soon as they arrive in the area. The Refugee Resettlement Task Team are in need more volunteers to work on organizing and establishing and maintaining an inventory of the warehouse. Additionally, volunteers are needed to help pack boxes for families as they arrive (no furniture is at this warehouse).

Tour of warehouse let Linda know.

Living Peace Church will have peanut brittle available for sale during lunch tomorrow.

Please bring nonperishable food items to place in the baskets in the vestibule. Pastor Nick Beam will take them to the local food bank.

Monthly Meetings

Camping ministries is alive and doing quite well. Volunteer numbers have increased. 6 pastors worked as counselors this past summer. We have a camp for children with special needs. This camp has become one of the largest camps with close to a one on one counselor to camper. Camping is year round now.

Other Ministries/activities include:

- Refugee Resettlement
- District Deacons,
- Ministers Groups
- One Call now,
- New Church start exploration,
- Pastoral placement and interim ministry,
- Counsel/support for congregations, Congregational leadership, pastors, and Pulpit supply
- Communications ministries: website, monthly e-newsletter, weekly note, monthly bulletin insert, special email notices;
- Together Magazine

All individuals may be in the data base by submitting information to the district.

We have an account with an agency for background checks for our churches.

5. Action Items

a. Budget Discussion

Refer to the 2016 Budget Report provided by the Treasurer for details

Carl Eubanks led the discussion of the budget and thanked Steve for being here to address any specific questions. Part of money from sales of properties was set for scholarship grants for congregations/individuals. Happy Corner was one of the grant recipients. They used the money for the Picnic in the Park project which is hosted about 500 families in the community to get supplies for the upcoming school year in the past. This year they got area sponsors and moved to the community park. They had approximately 700 attendees at the event in 2016 and the expanded project in 2017 hosted approximately 2100 people. Community partners raised $11000 for this event.

Budget discussion:

Carl: highlights: not change the format for the budget until the reconciliation meetings have concluded. Staff is being paid for 75% or 30 hours a week.

Empowering line is for the grants to congregations

Questions/Discussion:

Deb Oskin, Living Peace Church ,Columbus, Ohio: District exec. Medical insurance is on the budget. How is this done but is not legal on the budget as an item.

Response: it is a group plan therefore legal.

Nan Erbaugh, Lower Miami: Happy that Heritage Resource Center increased by 50%

Donna Wojcik, Trotwood Church:

Call of question with second: Budget as presented will be voted upon. Voice vote passed the budget.

6. Action Items

- a. Code of Regulation Changes Presentation, Discussion and Vote

Coming from the board and it does not need a second.

Ty Pyles outlined the four main changes to the Code of Regulations to bring about the needed revisions to become compliance with current Ohio Code.

Questions/Comments from the Delegates:

Deb Olskin, Living Peace Church: Are we going to change the website address? The domain name will remain the same at this time based on the process needed to change it.

Richard Fox, Pleasant Hill: Richard then stated it seems ironic that the state is telling the church how to organize.

Dean Garrett, Emmanuel Church: Is there were a community in southwest Kentucky it would be part of Southern Ohio/Ky? Response: Standing Committee makes the determination of these types of items.

Passed by Voice Vote

7. Report

- a. Sharing of West Alexandria Query and Board Response

Brother Brody Rike pastor, West Alexandria and Tracy Spalding board member to clarify the query. John Stoke, Oakland requested a summary of the board response since some attendees do not have packets. Dave read the response.

Question/Comments from delegates:

Brother Garrett, Emmanuel Church: stated that some districts have written a specific policy as have some other districts. He stated that he would be willing to serve on such a committee.

8. Passing of the Gavel

John thanked all those in attendance for the fellowship and worship at this conference as well as those who have worked tirelessly to plan and execute it. John then passed the gavel and cup to the Moderator of 2018, Deb Oskin.

Remarks and Benediction by 2018 Moderator

Deb challenged us to go forth remembering this: "We are Christ's body"

She then led us in benediction and adjourned the conference.
